

BIG FIRE TIES UP THE WHOLE CITY

10 MILLION PROFIT IN ONE YEAR

Monster Income of the $1,000,000
Company.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—The profits of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana in 1906 were $10,518,082 and in 1905 were $3,752,410. This is the corporation which is capitalized at $1,000,000 and which was fined $20,240 by Judge Landis in Chicago.

These figures were brought out in a hearing in action by the federal government against the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey here today. The statement shows the profits of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana were greater than the profits of the other company whose figures were given except the Standard Oil Company of New York.

Further efforts to obtain the records of the liquidating trustees of the Standard Oil Trust, which effected the dissolution of the trust and formed the present Standard Oil Company of New Jersey were made by Frank B. Kellogg, who is conducting the suit for the government.

TELLS OF PROFITS.

Clarence G. Fay, assistant comptroller of the Standard, was recalled today and questioned about the income of the C. M. Pratt Investment Company. He said that the income from this source in 1902 was $137,400 and that the money was paid over to the Standard Oil Company by C. M. Pratt, who yesterday testified that he held stock of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company of Texas for the Standard company and that the Standard company held the stock of the C. M. Pratt Investment Company in lieu of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company stock.

Fay testified that between 1899 and 1906 the stock of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company did not appear upon the books of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey as an asset. In 1899 the latter company's balance sheet showed ownership of 2747 shares of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company's stock, valued at $3,067,592. Fay was questioned about certain Central Trust Company certificates held by the Standard Oil Company between 1899 and 1904. A statement from the company showed that stock of the National Storage Company was sold in exchange for Lehigh Valley Railroad bonds and deposited with the Central Trust Company, which issued certificates in exchange. In 1905 these Central Trust certificates were exchanged for $200,000 in cash and $500,000 worth of 4 per cent bonds of the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company.

FIREMEN BATTLE TO SAVE WATER FRONT

$50,000 Loss, Caused by Short Circuit, Destroys Oil Tank of Light and Power Company.

EXCITEMENT ON WATER FRONT

To the chorus of exploding oil, falling timbers, wild shouts and wilder crackling of the flames, one of the most spectacular fires that have been visited upon Oakland for many years this morning destroyed the great 50,000 barrel oil-tank of the Oakland Gas Light and Heat company at the foot of Grove street, near the Southern-Pacific tracks, at 9:30 this morning. It is due more to good fortune than any other cause that there were not at least a dozen fatalities at the scene, for, before the arrival of the police, thousands of excited people rushed about the plant, exposing themselves to imminent danger from the high power wires which run in there from every direction. A large squad of blue coats arrived in due time and soon had the spectators well beyond the danger line. Across the tracks stood fifty or more freight cars, the property of the Southern Pacific, and on these the people took their stand.

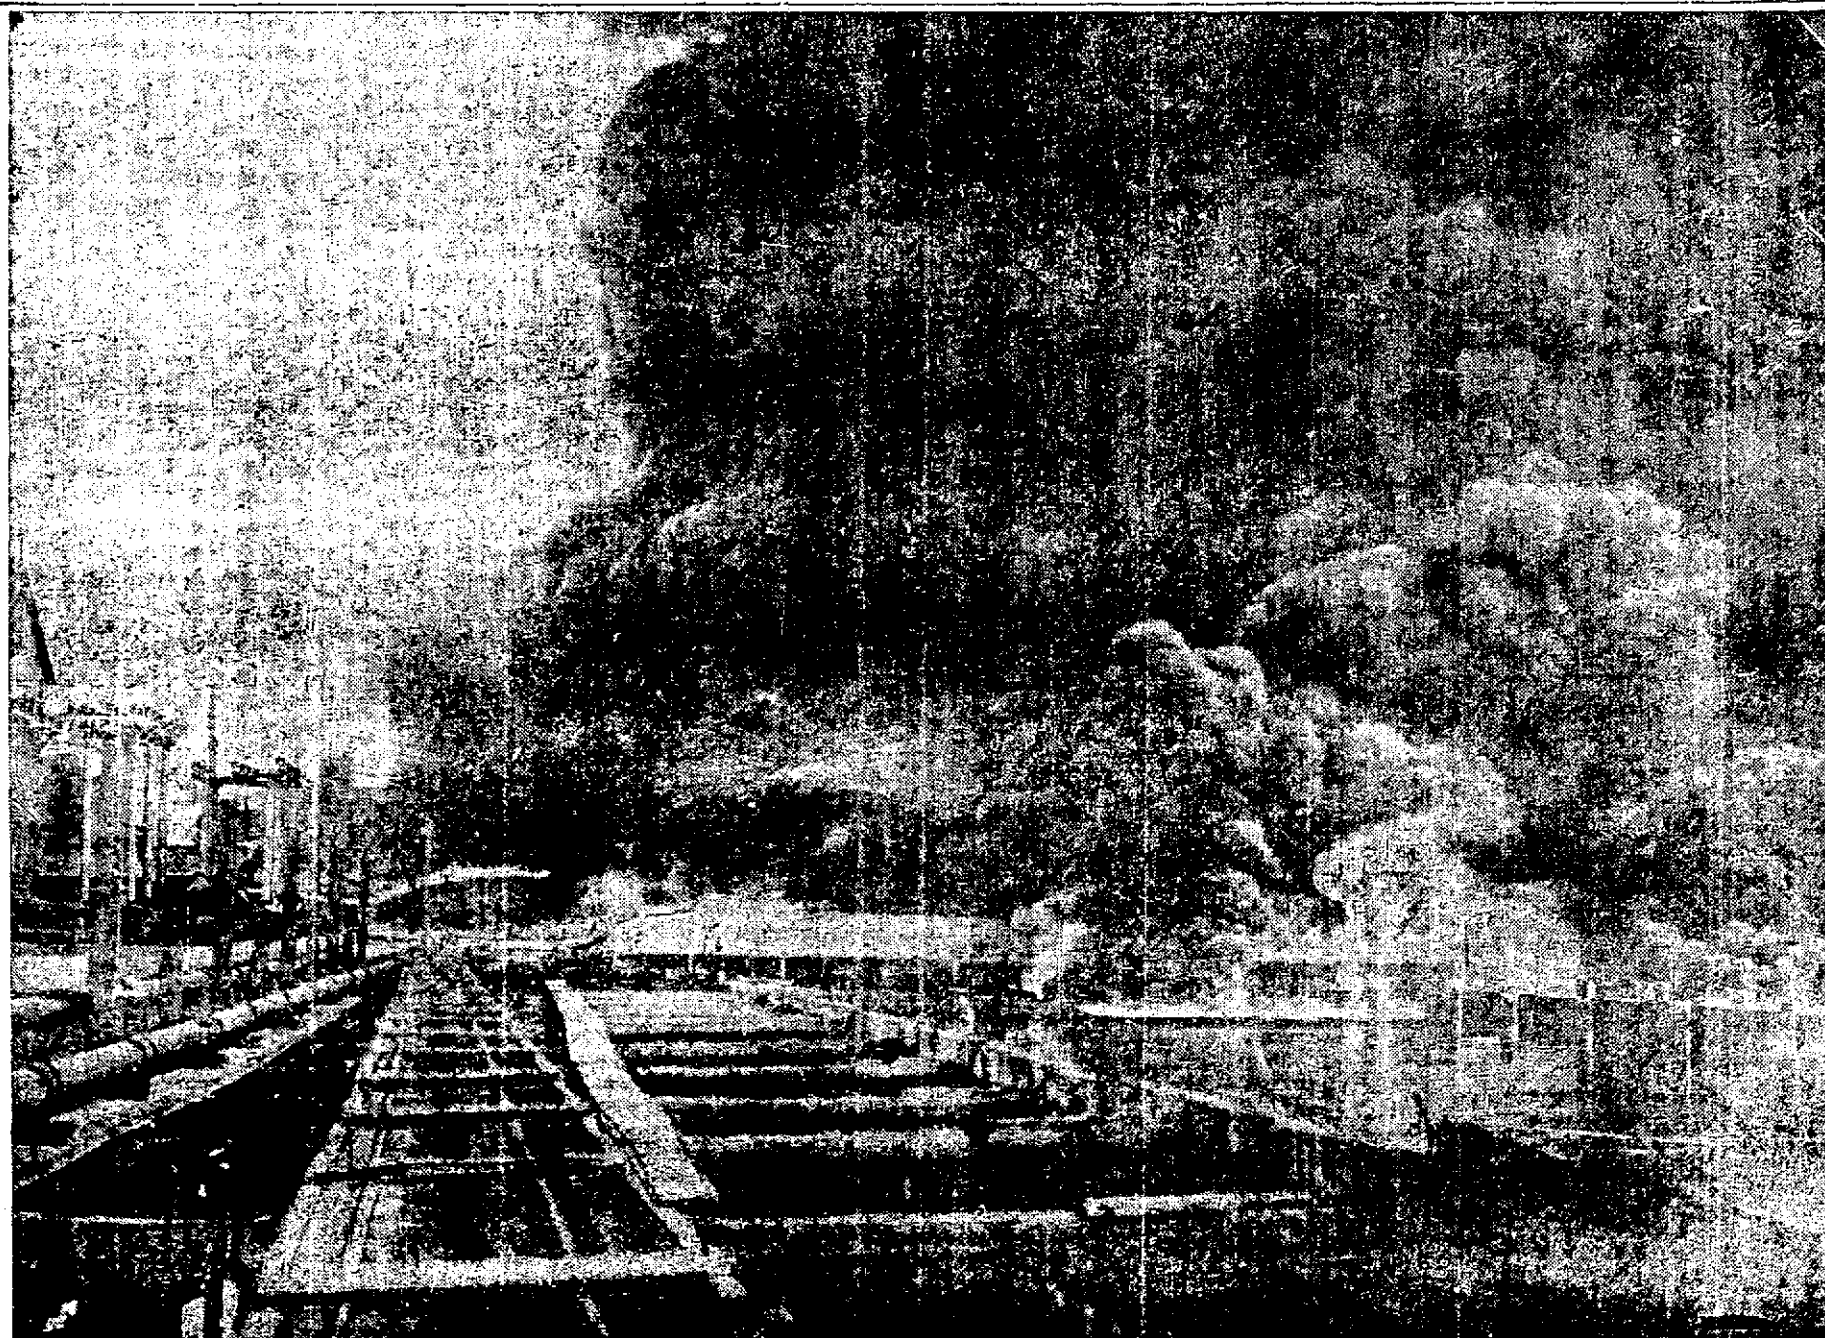

ORIGIN FAR AWAY.

The origin of the fire, strange to say, was located more than twenty blocks from the scene. About 9:25 two employees of the telephone company were engaged in connecting a heavy cable from one pole to another, across the high voltage wires of the power company.

TRIBUNE TODAY

Owing to the fire at the gas company's works THE TRIBUNE service today is curtailed. The power was completely off for several hours. We are obliged to the gas company and the Oakland Traction Company for prompt assistance in giving THE TRIBUNE office power to run its machines and presses.

ASK ALL PARTIES TO JOIN IN NOMINATION OF MAYOR

Republicans Want Democrats and Union Labor to Agree on One Man for High Position.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—In an effort to get the Democratic and Union Labor parties to join with them in nominating a mayor, the Republicans at their convention last night made no nominations, but authorized Chairman Daniel A. Ryan to appoint a committee of five to confer with committees of the other parties in hopes of coming to an understanding.

Ryan, although practically able to have secured the nomination for mayor, urged the non-partisan union of the three parties.

Ryan was loudly applauded by the delegates for his position on the resolution.

CHARGES RANEHER WITH INSANE ATTACK

John Charles Martin, a native of County Londonderry, Ireland, was brought to Oakland yesterday afternoon by the deputy constable of Livermore and lodged in the insane ward of the Emergency Hospital. Martin, who is 60 years of age, is charged with an irrational attack on John May, another farmer, whom it is alleged, he threatened with a hammer.

Martin appeared to be perfectly rational upon arrival at the hospital and passed a quiet night. Martin has a wife and child on his farm, about four miles from Livermore.

CASA BLANCA IS THE MOORS' WHITE HOUSE

Casa Blanca, the scene of the latest Moorish trouble, is so called in Spanish as the equivalent of Dar el Baida, which in English is simply White House. The town and its name date only from the end of the sixteenth century, though a famous city called Anfa formerly stood on the same spot.

Captured by the Amir Yabub II in 1590, Anfa became one of the most important trading cities in Africa, but as it combined piracy with legitimate business, Alfonso V of Portugal sacked and destroyed it in 1488. It remained a mere collection of ruins until the Portuguese rebuilt it with its new name more than a century afterward.

BIG FIRE TLES THE WHOLE CITY

The cable, breaking away from its temporary moorings, fell heavily upon the wires beneath, severing them and dashin them to the ground.

Thus short-circuited, the plant end of the power wire instantaneously transmitted a 2000-volt flash into the sub-station at Grove street, burning out the transformers. This flash, which was witnessed by many people dwelling or working along its route, was fully two inches wide and of startling brilliancy.

As it passed the great oil tank one end of the transmitting wire dropped and an instant later the petroleum was burning wildly, sending volume after volume of black fetid smoke towards the sky.

SENDS IN ALARM.

A. H. Burnett, assistant superintendent of the Electric company, immediately sent in an alarm to sub-station B, which is supplied by the same tank, and the latter immediately closed down their generators. By this time huge volumes of black smoke were pouring skyward from the tank, and the fierce flames were reaching out for the carpenter shop and main sub-station nearby. This latter station, recently equipped at a cost of more than $200,000, converts 60,000 volts of electricity, more than enough to supply all the cities around the bay. From this sub-station the power is reduced down to 2000 volts, the basis of power upon which the city's lights are operated.

BATTLE WITH FLAMES.

A moment's glance convinced Chief Ball that an attempt to save the tank would be futile, and all hands were directed toward the carpenter shop and sub-station. At this moment it was discovered that great rents in the side of the tank had been made by the electric current and that the petroleum was fast escaping, both into the grounds and into the estuary, spreading over the clear water like a pall. Hundreds of laborers were at once requisitioned by Mr. Burnett and, with shovel and wheelbarrow were put to work erecting earthworks against the streams of oil pouring from the tank. The fierce heat did much to discourage these brave workers, but in spite of all they succeeded in surrounding the burning tank with a three-foot embankment and stopping the spread of the flames.

WATER FRONT THREATENED.

On the bay side things were beginning to assume a most serious aspect. The burning oil, pouring out into the estuary, was threatening each of a hundred valuable lumber yards, dry-docks, transportation wharves and office buildings which line the banks on either side. A hundred feet away stood a large wharf piled twenty feet high with sawed timber. Had this been fired the blaze would soon have assumed the proportions of a conflagration.

At the crucial moment five or more skiffs, including one racing shell with three men in racing togs on board, threw themselves into the breach and, with a hose from shore conquered the angry flames by brute domination and cool-headed direction of the water. The fire was not permitted to get on the water at any time thereafter, though the wharves of the company were partially destroyed.

ENGINES RACE TO FIRE.

Half an hour after the blaze had started nearly all of the engines, hose carts and ladder companies of Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda had been requisitioned and were on the scene, the prompt response having elicited cheers from the great crowd which had gathered. Fire-tugs from San Francisco were called and the "Markham" was steaming around near the flames in a vain attempt to render assistance. The depth of the water was not sufficient for her to get within striking distance.

At 10 o'clock the carpenter shop, valued, together with its equipment, at $25,000, caught and after hard fighting was saved. From this time all attention was turned to the big sub-station. Water, a very weak and inconsequential factor in fighting burning oil, was turned with much better effect upon the galvanized roof and sides of the building. Tons upon tons of the cooling liquid were poured into the station itself, until the immense transformers stood in two feet of water.

50,000 BARREL TANK.

The tank in which the disaster was started is one of the big 50,000 barrel tanks famous throughout the country and indigenous to the State of California. It was perhaps fifty feet in diameter and stood almost the same height from the ground. Fortunately, at the time of the trouble, there were but 1650 barrels of petroleum in the well, a depth of ten and one-half feet.

Had the tank been even half full an explosion would undoubtedly have occurred, as in Pittsburgh a number of years ago when over 200 people were killed or disfigured for life by burning oil from the tank. It was the explosion of a second explosion, the sparks of flame and the liability of explosion rendered the positions of firemen, volunteers, reporters and the like far from enviable.

FIRE TUGS ON SCENE.

At 11:30 the tug "General Shocum" arrived at the scene and commenced unloading its hose and pumping from the tug. The "Markham" had by this time given up all attempt to reach the main tank, but prepared to defend the nearer properties should the blaze succeed in reaching them. The "Shocum" paid out more than 350 feet of hose here, they were able to get a stream into the yard of the power company, but at length brought two heavy charging lines to bear upon the sub-station. The effect of which was quickly recognized by the onlookers.

$50,000 DAMAGE.

William Hughes, superintendent of the plant, had at his home for several days, owing to severe burns received at the plant last Saturday evening. His assistant, W. J. Burnett, personally supervised and directed the work of his men, while Chief Ball had charge of the fire departments. Burnett was hardly able to compute the losses which the company will suffer, but an estimate of $150,000 is said to be conservative.

WIRE BREAK.

Great excitement prevailed at the corner of Thirteenth and Franklin streets, where the break occurred, which doomed the power plant. A fraction of a second after the great 2000-volt wire had snapped, clinging to the ground—an instrument whose slightest touch meant instant and terrible death—the police were on hand, the fire department on the streets and the traveling public standing aghast and terrified on the sidewalks. Every wire within a radius of a hundred yards seemed to have withered and twisted like venomous serpents in various agonies of death.

The big fire, there were several miraculous escapes from death. Men unconscious of anything were driven away by the very brink of eternity, being hauled back just in time by the vigilant officers. The men who we hang on the telephone wire, hung on the poles for several minutes, transfixed by the disorder they had wrought, and fearing of the present safety for an uncertain fate below.

Around them curled the mad cables, insulations burning and melting, and they by a finger breadth. At last they were persuaded to leave the poles and hurried away in search of a safer place for their over-strained nerves.

HORSES QUICK WORK.

The splendid horses of the various fire departments deserve their meed of praise for heroic work. It is so common for these dumb animals to be brave that their work is seldom noticed or commented upon. One dapple gray, attached to the hose wagon of No. 1 Engine House, was thrown to the ground while tearing over Washington street to the fire. The animal was badly injured and for more than fifty feet before it could regain a foothold, but raced on with the undiminished courage of a hero, and a body sore from the rude cobblestones of the street.

RUMORS SPREAD.

As usual, many wild rumors, floated without any idea of truth, foundation or intelligence, were spread throughout the country. Thus San Francisco was advised that the city of Oakland was in flames, that we were doomed to a destruction similar to that of April, 1905, across the bay. That twenty or more men have already perished, etc. Though undoubtedly a cruel and disastrous blaze, it has at no time passed beyond the control of the facilities always at our command and threatened the city in any way whatsoever. No date has been fixed for the morrow or the day after tomorrow. The worst feature of the fire is the deprivation of power, which will have to be endured for many hours. Practically all of the main buildings are without electric cover of any kind, the newspaper offices are temporarily checkmated, and the lighting system of the city is badly crippled. This evening it may be found necessary to deprive the city of lights, but this will undoubtedly be remedied during the night or early morning hours and by tomorrow evening the blaze will be considered one of the ordinary incidents of a great city.

CHARGED WITH DEEP CONSPIRACY

Warrants Out For Men in Capitol Scandal.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 18.—Warrants for the arrest of fourteen persons involved in the state capitol scandal were issued today by two Harrisburg aldermen on information furnished by Attorney General Dodd.

Each of the defendants is charged on several counts with conspiracy to cheat and defraud the state by making false invoices and four of them money under false pretenses.

Following is a list of the men for whom warrants were issued:

Joseph M. Houston, architect and his active assistants, Stanford B. Lewis, both of Philadelphia; John H. Sanderson, Philadelphia, chief contractor for furnishings; Congressman H. Burd Cassel, Marietta, Pa., treasurer and executive officer of the Penn Construction company, contractors for steel filing cases; James H. Shumaker, Johnstown, Pa., former superintendent of Public Grounds and Buildings, who received for the furnishings; George F. Payne, and his partner, Charles G. Wetter, both of Philadelphia, builders of the capitol and contractors for the $303,000 attic; William P. Snyder, Spring City, Pa., former auditor general, who approved the warrants of the contractor; William L. Mathews, Media, Pa., former state treasurer who passed the bills of the contractors; Charles E. Kinsman, Wallis Boileau, John G. Weiderer and George K. Storm, all of Philadelphia, stockholders in the Penn Bronze company, organized by Sanderson for the manufacture of the $2,000,000 lighting fixtures; Frank Irvine, auditor in the auditor general office who audited the accounts of the contractors.

WARRANTS ISSUED.

The men for whom warrants were issued include all of the fourteen persons and firms mentioned by the investigation commission in its report to Governor Stuart as being involved in the capitol contracts, with the exception of Frank G. Harris, former State Treasurer, and Edward B. Hardenberg, former Auditor General, both of whom were members of the board of grounds and buildings, that awarded the Cassel contracts; Geo. C. Kelm, bookkeeper in Shumaker's office and the present deputy superintendent of grounds and buildings; and the International Manufacturing and Supply Company, an alleged "dummy" bidder against Sanderson.

REPORT OF SCANDAL.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 18.—The arrests are based on the report made to Governor Stuart by the commission created by the Legislature to investigate the capitol scandal.

They will be followed by civil suits for the recovery of a portion of the nine million dollars collected by contractors for the furnishing and equipping of the capitol.

In its report, made public about a month ago, the commission named eighteen persons and firms as being involved in the capitol contracts, and said prosecution of any and all persons concerned in the fraudulent transactions, named specifically, and all persons who may be directly or indirectly involved.

John H. Sanderson and Joseph M. Houston of this city left for the State capitol at 10:30 a. m. to appear before a magistrate. Both were accompanied by counsel. Both had spent the summer away from home during the investigation of the fraud charges and only returned to this city yesterday to await the summons.

Houston's commissions as architect for the capitol commission for the construction of the building and of the board of public grounds and buildings, by which it was furnished and equipped, amounted to $655,000. Houston collected all of his commissions except $104,000 which State Treasurer Berry refused to pay on the ground that there was evidence of fraud and collusion in his transactions with the boards. Houston was one of the foremost architects of Philadelphia.

SCHOOL BOARDS IN TILT OVER JANITOR

The Board of Education and the High School Board engaged in a lively tilt last night at the regular meeting over the transfer of Janitor H. F. Goff of the Oakland High School to the Longfellow school, on account of friction with the High School students. The transfer is proposed, it was claimed, because Goff treats the students as small children, thereby endangering a lot of trouble and annoyance on both sides. The Board of Education combatted the transfer, and the matter was deadlocked, finally being passed until the next meeting, when more information would be at hand.

The name of H. F. Goff was suggested for the vacancy in the High School if Goff is transferred.

The Shadow of a Man

45 per cent of the people you meet on the street are mere shadows of what they should be—they are too thin for their height. They lack in vitality—they are more open to attacks of disease—and they are not attractive, and often less popular, than their shadowy friends. If you are too thin it is due to one or more of the following four reasons: 1. You cannot digest starch. 2. You cannot digest fat. 3. You do not assimilate what you eat. 4. You have a poor appetite. Peptol, the new food remedy, overcomes the difficulty in each case. It adds flesh at a remarkably rapid rate. This has been proven beyond doubt by eminent physicians, professional men and hundreds of others who have used it. It combines in highly condensed form the very elements that build flesh. It helps to digest other foods. It creates appetite. Peptol will increase your weight in 30 days. This we absolutely guarantee. If it does not we will refund your money without question. CONFIDENT OF VICTORY FOR FORD

Defendant Counsel More Certain as Trial Advances

(Special to THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—As to who will be the first witness called in the case of T. L. Ford, the general counsel for the United Railroads, now on trial for alleged bribery in Judge Lawlor's court, is a matter of speculation. The members of the prosecution maintain a degree of secrecy regarding all details connected with the case that awakens profound surprise among those who have followed the graft cases.

The reference and mysterious shakes of the head, which are becoming more and more noticeable in the prosecutors, is giving rise to the belief that the case against Ford is not as strong as the law sleuths have attempted to make out.

DEFENSE CONFIDENT.

On the other hand the general air of contentment and satisfaction exhibited by the defense from the start is gradually becoming more pronounced. Earl Rogers, the defendant's chief counsel, grows more sanguine as the case proceeds. He is becoming noted for his clear shaf's of sarcasm which, while guiding Fenev, Langdon, Burns or Spreckels as the case may be, give no opportunity for reply. Ever suave and smiling, the Los Angeles attorney is gaining the reputation of being the life of the courtroom, offering as he does, a strong contrast to the sphinx-like features and hard-voiced prosecutors.

Owing to the celebration of Yom Kippur, the sacred Jewish fast day, the trial was postponed until 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning, when the thirty-eight talesmen, who were drawn yesterday, will report in the court. The selection of the two men to fill the box will then be made. Neither the defense nor the prosecution doubt but that the box will be filled tomorrow morning, and that when the afternoon session begins the mysterious first witness will be placed on the stand.

IMMUNITY BATH.

Both sides, however, are watching the selection of jurors with unusual care. The immunity bath is ever brought up by the prosecution, and the prospective juror must admit feeling that he can credit the statements of the self-confessed hoodlums.

The fact that the case against Ford will practically hinge on the testimony of the hoodlums, is now well established, and it is for this reason that the State is seeking to fill the jury box with men who will be willing to believe the self-confessed grafters.

There is still one peremptory challenge remaining to each side and the defense has the right to use the last. Today has been a rest to the counsel representing Ford. After the week's work of examining talesmen, the day's adjournment was heralded by both sides as a welcome break. Since the beginning of the trial Patrick Calhoun has been a constant attendant and watches the proceedings closely. His former law partner, King, is also present at most of the sessions and joins in most of the consultations of the attorneys. From present indications the case will be the most bitter contest of the graft trial that has yet come up.

BLAST HURLS STONE AND MASHES FOOT

Louis A. Lefevre, an Oakland Elk, was the victim of a remarkable accident at Truckee yesterday afternoon, in which he sustained a broken foot and several severe bruises. Blasting for foundations was being done in the vicinity of Lefevre's hotel and an unusually heavy charge was exploded as he stepped into the street. A large rock was hurled directly in his path striking him upon the foot and throwing him to the ground. Examination of the injured member disclosed a number of broken bones, and the victim may lose several toes. Lefevre was brought to Fabiola hospital, where he is under the care of Drs. Hamlin and Bateau.

SPLENDID FUTURE FOR CITY, SAYS VISITOR

Colonel Crane, a delegate to the late Irrigation Congress at Sacramento, spoke very enthusiastically before the Merchants' Exchange last evening of the golden opportunities that are now offered to Oakland; the interest displayed by Eastern moneyed men, the facility with which $50,000,000 could be obtained for improving the water front along Berkeley, Oakland and Alameda if only there was concerted action.

PROSECUTION SCORED BY ROGERS IN THE FORD TRIAL

Ten Jurymen Accepted at End of Day's Struggle Marked by Many Exciting Legal Contests.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 18.—With the addition of Daniel Kelly, an insurance agent, and Charles W. Gould, a manufacturer's agent, who were sworn in as jurors to try T. L. Ford, shortly before the close of the afternoon session yesterday, the jury box was filled with the exception of two members. The ten men now secured have not yet been placed under the Sheriff's charge, although as soon as the other two are secured their days of liberty will be ended until the trial is brought to a close.

The afternoon session was marked by the emptying of the big trial jury box to secure a venire from which to pick two talesmen to be examined for the remaining vacancies on the jury. This is the first time the big box, which contains 2400 names, has been emptied in years, according to the statements of those in the County Clerk's office.

The examination of the talesmen in the afternoon session was marked by a number of sly hits at the graft prosecutors by Rogers, who bears the brunt of the examination for the defense. "Burns, an alleged detective," received his share of little pointed criticisms, Honey and Langdon also came in for a few shafts, while Rudolph Spreckels, who is ever present, was not forgotten.

SURPRISED AT FAILURE TO FILL JURY BOX

The fact that the jury box was not filled came as a surprise to both the defense and the prosecution.

The eight from the last remaining name of the venire called yesterday was that of Beckmann. Beckmann, when called and sworn, said he was in business and that he could not spare the time to serve on the jury, even if accepted.

"Have you an opinion," he was asked. "Yes, sir, I have."

"Would that need evidence to remove?" "Yes, sir, it would."

O'Gara challenged for prejudice. Attorney Moore denied the challenge, and submitted the talesman to further examination.

"Are you mixed up in politics?" asked Moore. "Not very much."

"What do you form that from, newspaper reports?" "Partly from newspapers."

"Did you form that opinion from what you have been told by people who presume to know the facts of the case?" "Yes."

O'Gara was charged with forgery; did you form your opinion from what has been said by some person who professed to know the merits of the charge?" "No."

"You say you feel a little biased? Whom is it against, General?" "Whom I objected, but the court allowed the question."

"Counsel requires you to answer the question."

"I withdraw the question," said Moore. He was then challenged and excused.

"Have you ever expressed the opinion that Calhoun was a slave driver like his grandfather?" "No."

"You never have been a member of a labor union?" "No, I am always been able to make a living for myself."

"Do you know Mr. Fenev in any way?" "No."

"Do you know his father, the old man?" "I heard of him."

"Do you know Mr. Langdon?" "No."

"I thought he were guilty I would convict him, and if he were innocent I would clear him," replied Flood.

Rogers challenged the juror on the ground that he had served within a year. He was excused.

A. Wolf, 139 Golden Gate avenue, and James D. Courtney, 25 Pacific avenue, were next called. Wolf was examined first.

"Have you an opinion in this case?" asked O'Gara.

"Yes, a strong opinion," responded Wolf.

"Do you think you could give the defendant a fair trial?" "No, I think not."

O'Gara challenged the juror, but the defense denied the challenge.

Attorney Moore took up the questioning. "From what you have said I gather that you are an evidence you would be prejudiced against the defendant."

O'Gara then stated that witnesses who had been excused the day before until the clerk was in court and awaiting service.

Judge Lawlor stated they would be excused until Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. He also announced that owing to the sacred fast day of the Jews, and the fact that they wished to observe the temple, court adjourn until Thursday afternoon.

FORMER SUPERVISORS ARE ALL IN COURT.

All the old board of supervisors are present, and replied to their names when called. Rogers and Courtney were the next talesmen to undergo the rapid fire of the attorneys.

"Have you any opinion in regard to the merits of this case?" asked O'Gara.

"Yes, I have," was the reply. "If you are excused in any way related to the guilt or innocence of this defendant?" "Yes, it is."

"You could not then give a fair hearing?" "No."

John E. Ebury, 1566 Cole street, was called and the clerk announced that his name was on the list of talesmen.

Judge Lawlor asked if the different counsel wished to examine the talesman, but they were all excused.

The jury box was then brought up and the following names drawn: Thomas Howard, 481 Duane street; Frank Taylor, 1317 Laguna street; Edward Donohue, 210 Pacific avenue; George Gaffney, 208 Washington street; William T. Church street; M. H. Harris, 1321 Jackson street; A. Marks, 320 Scott street; John Scott, 305 E. California street; R. F. Mitchell, 2234 Jackson street; A. H. Mitchell, 123 E. California street; F. JUVENILE CULPRITS WORRY OFFICERS

The Juvenile Court of Oakland, called by Judge Samuels for yesterday afternoon, has been reset for Wednesday next, at 2 p. m. In the meantime eight young culprits now in custody will be cared for at the Receiving hospital.

Chief of Police Wilson and Probation Officer Ruess are far from satisfied with the quarters provided for these youngsters while the doctors and attendants at the Emergency hospital will welcome any orders relieving them of the worry and anxiety occasioned by the boys. It is urged that some definite place of detention should be provided for wayward children and Probation Officer Ruess will put the matter before the Board of Supervisors at its next meeting.

STABLE LOWERS VALUES.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 18.—The Board of Equalization has reduced the assessments on the lots adjoining the Santa Clara avenue and Broadway street. The lots on each side of the stable were reduced $20 each. At the time the stable was erected the owners made objection, but to no avail. It was then the stable ordinance was drafted, but before its passage the stable had been built and the ordinance could not effect it.

POLICE ARE SHAKEN UP BY BIGGY

City Prison Captain Sent to Beat at Presidio

(Special to THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—Shake-up number two in the San Francisco police department came this morning when Chief of Police Biggy transferred Sergeant "Scotty" Campbell from the city prison to the fog and winds of the Golden Gate Park district and switched Sergeant Clarence Coogan from the position of station keeper at the park to Campbell's place as captain of the city prison.

This move on the part of the new chief was not unexpected. Campbell was on the carpet a few weeks ago in connection with the admission of "shyster lawyers" into the city prison, and was warned by Acting Chief of Police Anderson that he would be expected to turn over a new leaf. Chief Biggy evidently thought that the good of the department demanded that Campbell be sent to other fields of labor.

CITY JAIL CAPTAIN. Sergeant Campbell has been captain of the city prison since the opening of the new Hall of Justice in February of this year and has been a member of the police department since 1890. He has been on duty during which time he has done street duty in several capacities.

Clarence Coogan, who received the new position, which is considered one of the soft spots of the department, was appointed a patrolman in 1890 and promoted to the rank of sergeant in January, 1898. For some time he has been acting as station keeper at the Park police station, where he succeeded Sergeant Perini, who, it will be remembered, was placed in charge of the station after he was placed upon the carpet for allowing trustees to go for prisoners.

COOGAN IS KNOWN AS ONE OF THE MOST efficient officers in the department and while he was connected with the police department he has been a notable capturer.

Policeman William F. Dorsey of Courtland street, who was charged by Mack, Chief of Police Biggy, and his star was turned over to Chief Campbell as the direct result of the arrest of Policeman Frederick H. Flynn, who was charged by Mack with stealing $100 and a diamond ring. The offense for which Dorsey was suspended from duty was the result of the arrest of Flynn.

COST OF SEWERS UNDER BOND ISSUE IS COMPILED

Five More Contracts Remain to Be Awarded, Bids for One, Wood Street, Being Opened Today.

City Engineer Turner has compiled the estimate of $417,000 included in the bond issue.

The total incidental expenses have amounted to about 5 per cent additional to contract cost, which has, however, been covered by the premium obtained through the sale of the bonds.

There remain five more sewer contracts to be awarded under the bond issue. The bids for one of the five—Wood street—were opened today. Action on the Linden street sewer has been intentionally deferred until water front improvements planned by the Public Improvement Company and the Boole Shipyard are made.

The Oak-street sewer is hanging fire because the Adams estate refuse the right of way through the wharf property for an outlet, and condemnation proceedings will have to be taken to force a right of way.

THE EAST SIDE SEWER. The East Side sewer will be pushed ahead as far as the right of way has been obtained. The outlet will have to wait until a right of way has been condemned.

The bonded sewer account on the 11th of September was as follows: Bond sales, $58,500; premium, $23,500; amount available, $82,000. Total amount paid, $170,830.75. Balance on hand, $450,103.15.

POLICE CHIEF IS OUT $650

Vollmer Advances Money to Get Prisoner, but He Doesn't Get Him.

BERKELEY, Sept. 18.—Chief of Police Vollmer is $650 out of pocket through the dismissal of William H. Wilson, who was arrested by the police of Berkeley, and who had been sent east to get and bring back to this city where he is charged with felony embezzlement. Chief Vollmer paid the expenses of Fraser's trip.

A. E. Wilson, a contractor and builder on the morning of July 2 last disappeared from this city and took with him, so it is alleged, $325.53 belonging to Elmer Lamb, which had been given him to pay for construction materials.

Circulars were issued and sent to all parts of the United States ordering the arrest and holding of Wilson. The police of Rockford, Ill., found him working on a farm, and arrested him, notifying the Berkeley department. Detective Fraser was immediately sent to Illinois to bring Wilson to this city, but the contractor fought extradition. Fraser this morning wired:

"Court discharged Wilson, have written details, wire instructions, Fraser."

All of the money which Vollmer has paid out, will most probably be a loss to him if Fraser but succeeds in returning Wilson to Berkeley, the money would have been paid from the county fund for services rendered, but as the case now stands, there were no services rendered and Vollmer will not be reimbursed.

CITY HALL GETS HIGH TOWER

New Plans Adopted Call for Many Important Changes in Building.

BERKELEY, Sept. 18.—Revised plans adopted will call for a tower on the city hall a question much discussed heretofore, and the appearance of the entire building will be different, although the same general lines are kept. The tower will be a large one and will rise 135 feet above the sidewalk on the Grove street side.

Another important change raises the basement about ten feet above the sidewalk.

The windows on the second floor are changed to a great extent. All will be ornamented with a balcony which extends well to the front, allowing a roomy porch. An attic for the storage of public records is also an additional feature.

LOT A LARGE ONE.

The new town hall will stand at the corner of Alameda and Grove street on a lot with a frontage of 448 feet on the latter thoroughfare. The building will be constructed with money voted last November when a bond election for a $100,000 town hall was held.

In the basement of the building will be the police station, the jail and the receiving hospital; on the second floor the offices of the superintendent of streets, auditor, treasurer, clerk and building department; the third floor will be occupied by the council chambers, the courtroom, mayor's office, attorney's office and committee rooms; the attic will be a storage place for town records.

A large park will surround the building.

The new plans place the structure at an angle of sixty degrees from Grove street, while the former ones gave it a full Grove street frontage.

Building Inspector Bull will place the plans on exhibition in the Chamber of Commerce and will advertise for bids immediately.

There will be a special musical program for the evening which will be contributed by Horatio Cogswell, a teacher of the High School, who has an excellent baritone voice, and Richard Hunt, a well known tenor.

ARRESTED LAD TELLS STORY OF WANDERING

BERKELEY, Sept. 18.—After being arrested as a vagrant by Patrolman Humphreys, a 17-year-old lad, told Chief of Police Volmer a long tale of wanderings about the country. The boy is being held here as a vagrant, while the police are investigating his story.

Humphreys claims that he was placed in the Armistage Orphanage at San Mateo when a lad of 10, after his parents had disappeared, and that he left the place two months before the earthquake of 1906 for W. S. Bower at San Mateo for 4 months and found, however, failed to pay him, so he alleges, and he says he left the place. He says he read a letter that his parents had met death in Los Angeles while on a buggy ride, and he has been knocking about the country, homeless.

SENIORS PERFECTING ORIGINAL "TRADITION"

BERKELEY, Sept. 18.—Sam Hume, Joel Harry Jenkins and John Tyssowski are at work perfecting arrangements for launching a new "tradition" at the University.

When the plans are carried through there will be a sacred bench for the use of seniors only. Freshmen and look at the new "traditional" spot.

The scheme was suggested by prominent seniors and was carried to seniors in the architectural department, where plans for a great oaken bench were drawn. According to the plans "The Senior Bench" will be built just south of North Hall steps, filling the corner which has been partly occupied by the "Old North Hall Bench" which is now for the use of the undergraduates of all classes.

Sanior control of undergraduate affairs in the future will be dictated from the new lounging place.

Plans for the construction of the bench will be placed before the men of the senior class at the next senior singing. With the placing of the new bench another "traditional spot" will be added to the historic places on the campus.

Names are now being banded in for the tennis meet and the drawings will take place Thursday evening.

ILLNESS CAUSES MAN TO FALL AND HURT FACE

BERKELEY, Sept. 18.—While walking along Shattuck avenue towards Channing way last evening, T. Oakami, a Japanese residing at 2875 Shattuck avenue, was suddenly taken ill and fell face downwards on the cement sidewalk. His face was badly cut and bruised. He was found lying on the sidewalk unable to move by Patrolman Wikoff, who had him removed to the Roosevelt Hospital. Wikoff took several valises which Oakami had been carrying, to the police station, from where they were handed over to one of the sick man's countrymen.

Oakami is thought to have been suddenly taken with a fainting spell, probably caused by over-exertion, as the valises which he carried were exceedingly heavy. He is still at the hospital in a weak condition.

HEAVY BOOT SAVES LEG FROM DISASTER

At 275 Baffenstein, a Norwegian living at 371 Forty-fifth street, attempted to board a Telegrapher's car at Eighth and Broadway last evening, with disastrous results. The car was moving at a rapid gait and the motorist signalled to Baffenstein to keep away. The big fellow tried to jump, however, and, missing the handrails, thrust his right foot under the wheels. His heavy boot saved the leg, but examination at the Emergency Hospital developed that his large toe had been so crushed that amputation was necessary. He was afterwards removed to his home.

$400 A FRONT FOOT FOR BERKELEY LAND

BERKELEY, Sept. 18.—One of the largest recent sales in local realty circles was the transfer of a valuable piece of property on the north side of University avenue, a short distance west of Shattuck avenue. The purchaser is Mrs. Letitia Achesson and the seller Julius Salzberger. The land is 24x115 feet in dimensions and the price paid was $8600. This makes the price of the property $400 a front foot. The lot is now occupied by a blacksmith shop. Mrs. Achesson has not announced whether she will build in the near future or not.

Japanese and White.

"It is evident," says the British Californian, "that the Japanese and the whites will never get along together on this coast, and that the Japanese, therefore, must go. But let the exclusion be made in a peaceable and civilized manner, as becomes the people and the age." To that sentiment THE TRIBUNE cordially subscribes. All our relations with friendly nations should be conducted in a peaceful and orderly manner.

Alpine Tragedies.

All records of Alpine tragedies have been broken by this year's experiences, but the insane human desire to scale these perilous heights will continue to be gratified in the future, as it has in the past, at all hazards.

Maine Collision.

It is reported that the recent head-on collision on the Boston and Maine Railroad was due to a mistake of a train dispatcher's orders. It is also quite certain that operating a double line traffic on a single track was equally responsible for it. Train dispatching on a double track is straining to the nerves of every operator, although head-on collisions are eliminated from the list of possibilities. But train dispatching both ways on a single track is doubly dangerous to life and property and the operator's nerves are constantly on a tension in such a service. It is a generally accepted fact among the train dispatching fraternity that sooner or later a cog will slip in the experience of every train dispatcher, however careful he may be; and the superstitious dread of such a thing happening is ever present in the average train dispatcher's mind every time he takes his trick at the key.

Aerial Voyage.

Walter Wellman's aerial voyage in quest of the North Pole has been postponed until another summer. The one ascension made this year was a complete failure. The dirigibility of Wellman's airship was not a success, and the structure came to grief quickly. Of course, an Arctic storm is held responsible for the unsucces of the enterprise, but aerial navigation can never be relied upon unless vessels sailing in the air can weather storms in the atmosphere as vessels navigating the seas are able to do.

The general state conference will be held at Long Beach in February. Secretary Jackson and Director Seawright are planning to represent the local association at that meeting, also.

PRaises WORK OF FIREMEN

Wilbur Walker Declares Coolness of Department Disastrous Conflagration.

Editor TRIBUNE.—As an eyewitness of the work of the fire Department at the fire this morning I desire to bear witness to the excellent work done. We have in the past been apt to criticize the firemen of this city, but we should be equally just when adverse criticism is out of place.

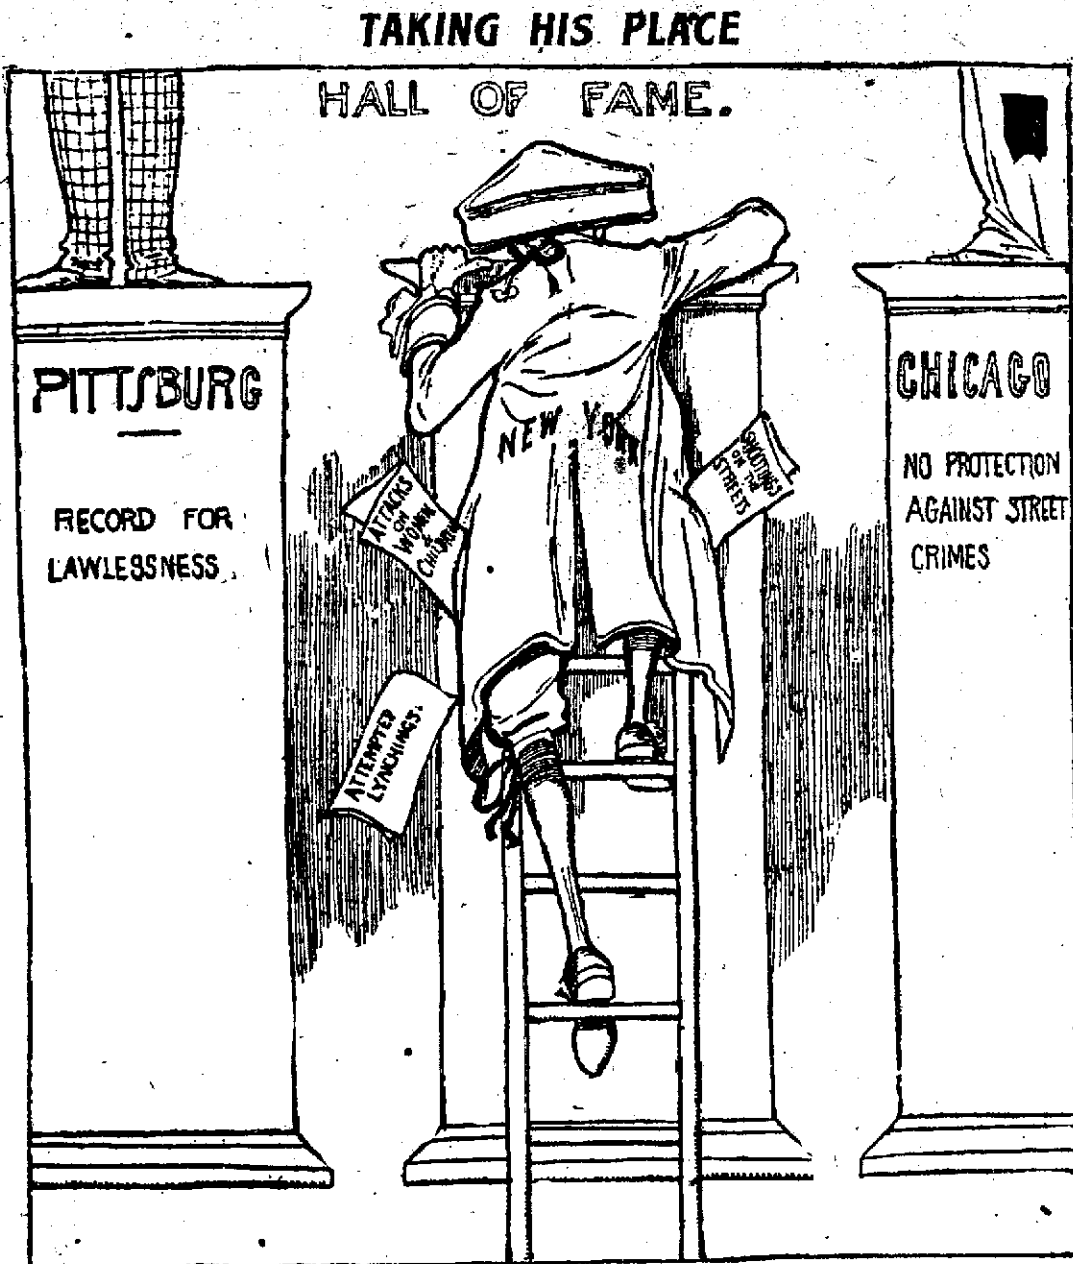

We should be as willing to throw a bouquet as a cabbage when the bouquet is deserved. The coolness and good judgment displayed in handling this blaze prevented a disastrous conflagration.

Oakland has a small but efficient force of fire fighters. We need more apparatus; we need more hydrants; we need more water, and we believe the city government will provide for our needs in the immediate future. Allow me again to express to the fire boys my sincere thanks for their faithful and skillful work this morning. WILBUR WALKER, Secretary Merchants' Exchange.

FAILS TO APPEAR FOR TRIAL IN LIQUOR CASE

BERKELEY, Sept. 18.—A. W. Peterson, who was arrested last month and charged with selling liquor in Berkeley in violation of the ordinance which was passed last April, did not appear before Judge Edgar this morning for trial and his bail, which had been reduced from $500 to $100, was declared forfeited by the court.

Peterson is the man whom it is alleged carried large amounts of liquor in a covered wagon.

REAL ESTATE EXCHANGE SEES GOOD BUSINESS

BERKELEY, Sept. 18.—"Renewed activity" was the keynote of the meeting of the Berkeley Real Estate Exchange held last evening in the Chamber of Commerce rooms in this city. President Francis Forrier occupied the chair. New officers and directors were elected and the exchange starts upon its new term under most favorable auspices.

Geo. W. Skiffner was chosen president and to new directors elected are: W. J. Mortimer, P. F. Bradhoff, Raymond Bailey and James A. McDermott.

DEATH COMES TO MRS. BADE

BERKELEY, Sept. 18.—Mrs. Bade, wife of Professor W. F. Bade of the Pacific Theological Seminary and daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Walter H. Ratcliffe of this city, died this afternoon at the Roosevelt Hospital.

The young woman had been married but about a year. She was a recent University of California graduate, member of the Phi Beta Kappa and Sequoia Club.

FIND LONG LOST PAPERS

BERKELEY, Sept. 18.—The discovery of certain papers, known as "the lost Corcoran papers," among the miscellaneous manuscripts of the Bancroft Library of the University of California, has aroused great interest among the scholars. Baron de Corcoran was the last Spanish governor of Louisiana and his important acts of the early history of the southwest. Upon learning of the discovery of these papers Professor Turner, a well-known historian, said: "The discovery of these papers will make necessary the rewriting of the history of the Southwest."

FORMER CONDUCTOR SEEKS POLICE STAR

James Pullman appeared before the Police Commissioners this morning as a candidate for appointment on the regular police force. He had been once before an applicant, and been appointed but failed to qualify. Commissioner Mott asked him to explain.

Pullman said that he was then employed as a conductor in the service of the Southern Pacific Company, and while his application was pending before the commission the salaries of conductors were raised. He, therefore, thought at that time, under the circumstances he was justified in keeping the best paying position, as it was worth $150 a month. Since then he has been discharged from the railroad service owing to an accident on the coast, Pleasanton, and he was held responsible.

Being now out of a position Pullman renewed his application for appointment on the force.

Commissioner Turner—How old are you?
Pullman—Thirty-five last July.
Commissioner McElroy—That may make you eligible.

Mayor Mott—But he was under 25 when he made his first application and will receive an appointment, and that will probably bring him within the rule.

The other commissioners joined in that view of the case, and Pullman was put on the eligible list.

KNOCKED FROM BUGGY.

BERKELEY, Sept. 18.—While driving along the corner of Grant and Channing way, H. A. Johnson, of the Johnson-Crane Realty company, collided with a rig coming down Grant street. Johnson was thrown over the dashboard, but landed on his feet. His horse tore itself loose from the running gear and made a dash up Grant street. Though the animal bounded along the street, Johnson held onto the reins, and managing to remain on his feet, checked the horse after it had run for seventy-five feet.

C. A. Plummer, the owner of the immense salt works near Centerville, died yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Fabiola Hospital. The capitalist had been failing for some time, and a sudden heart attack brought his career to an end. Everything in the line of medical help was done to save him.

Plummer was 65 years old. Funeral arrangements have not yet been given out, but his remains were shipped to Centerville.

FOUND IN CRITICAL CONDITION ON STEPS

Charles Hotel, 67 years of age, was found by a patrolman during the twilight hours last evening, on the steps of the East Bay Hospital. The man was in a seemingly critical condition, and during the ride to the Receiving Hospital had several fainting spells, from which it was not thought he would recover. Hotel states that he came from Sacramento some time ago, and authorities of that city have been notified of his condition. He is now resting comfortably in one of the emergency wards.

JAPANESE MINISTER TO BE INDEPENDENT

The Rev. S. Okubo, pastor of the Japanese Congregational Church, has planned to abolish all sects and establish an independent church in this city. Prior to this earthquake and fire of last April he had his plans well under way and raised several thousand dollars for his new enterprise and has purchased a tract of land on Chestnut street near Twenty-second street for the purpose of erecting a suitable edifice for the worship of his followers. Work on the building will commence at once.

WOMEN IN HOSPITALS

Experiences of Mrs. Rockwood and Miss Tierney

MISS MARGARET TIERNEY
MRS. CHAS. A. ROCKWOOD

A large proportion of the operations performed in our hospitals are upon women and girls for some organic trouble. Why should this be the case? Because they have neglected themselves, as every one of these patients in the hospital beds had plenty of warning in those dragging sensations, pains at left or right of abdomen, backaches, nervous exhaustion, inflammation, ulceration, displacements, and other organic weaknesses.

All of these symptoms are indications of an unhealthy condition of the female system and if not heeded the penalty has to be paid by a dangerous operation. When these symptoms manifest themselves, do not drag along until you are obliged to go to the hospital and submit to an operation—but remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, has saved hundreds of women from surgical operations.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured more cases of feminine ills than any other one remedy. Such letters as the following are constantly being received by Mrs. Pinkham to prove our claims.

Mrs. C. A. Rockwood, teacher of Parliamentary Law, of 53 Free St., Fredonia, N. Y., writes: "For years I suffered with female trouble. It was decided that an operation was necessary, and although I submitted to a serious operation my sufferings continued, until Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended and it proved a marvelous remedy, so quickly did it restore my health, I cannot thank you sufficiently for the good it has done me."

Miss Margaret Tierney, of No. 358 W. 25th Street, New York, writes: "Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—When only eighteen years of age our physician decided that an operation was necessary to permit of my womanly organs performing their natural functions. My mother objected and being urged by a relative to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did so. I soon improved in health, the proper conditions were established and I am well and strong, thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

No other remedy has such unqualified endorsement as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. No other remedy in the world has such a record of cures of female ills.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised. Out of her vast volume of experience in treating female ills Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that may help your case. Her advice is free and always helpful.

MUCH MYSTERY SURROUNDS REASON WHY EVELYN NESBIT DISMISSES HER ARTIST Half-Finished and Costly Portrait Is Cast Aside

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, so Mme. Marie von Veltheim, the Boer war heroine and painter of princely portraits, has been sitting to her for her portrait and has suddenly discharged the artist and cast aside the half-finished work of art.

Much mystery surrounds the alleged termination of the contract. The picture, it is said, was ordered by Harry Kendall Thaw, and was designed to be one of the most elaborate and costly ever executed in America. Vogue reports that Mme. von Veltheim would stare at her beautiful sitter in preference to painting, and that certain prosaic facts have developed to show her life not at all in accord with the romantic version she herself gave of it. are the only explanations offered to account for the strange affair.

There is a strange dispute over the matter. Mrs. Thaw refused to be seen, but sent word to a reporter that there had been no sittings at all. Her lawyer, Dan O'Reilly, said there were sittings, but they were not satisfactory to Mrs. Thaw. The artist declares she did certain work, that she has been dismissed and has been adequately paid.

Mme. von Veltheim came to America about a month ago with the reputation of having painted the portrait of King Edward and with a romance in her recent life somewhat similar to that of the younger Mrs. Thaw.

It is said the woman has declared that her husband stole and buried the $4,000,000 of the Transvaal funds which Kruger kept in his own possession. She is said to have told Mrs. Thaw that she had secured maps in this city which show where the treasure now lies.

But the other day, when the artist called at the Thaw home she was told by a maid that Mrs. Thaw was not in. She then she has been informed that there will be no more sittings, and her former client will not see her again.

Salem Woman Makes Witches of Clay, Which She Sells to Tourists

One of the clever women whose work and whose brains rank side by side with those of clever men is Mrs. Ida Upton Paine of Salem, an artist. Rarely endowed with both the artistic temperament and the business faculty, she saw her opportunity and made the most of it in originating and developing what is said to be the first typical souvenir of the world.

With Hawthorne's quaint old House of Seven Gables for her family roof tree, little wonder that the young woman absorbed the still lingering Puritanical atmosphere of a sketched out, to her own satisfaction her own historic picture of a grim and skinny witch, in peaked cap and scanty skirt, astride the traditional broomstick.

Beautifully as Mrs. Paine paints in water colors and oils, which she also teaches, it is not for these gifts that she has become famous.

Others have imitated her with designs, in silver, gold and clay, but as a maker of Salem witches she was first, others following only when the woman had first proven that clever originality. In this, at least, says.

Every pilgrim to the many Salem shrines, great tragedians, comedians, historians, authors, eminent divines, statesmen, actresses (and their names are legion), have carried home to far and foreign lands the tiny cups and saucers or the little pepper shakers, the queer shaped candlesticks or the rose and bonnet bowls, to laugh and show their friends the historic, tiny Salem witch, the work of a woman specialist.

She Was Only Crossing the Street

She was crossing the street,

She had dear little feet,

LAWYER SAYS HE BOUGHT LIBERTY FROM HIS WIFE

Declares Woman Agrees to Let Him Live
With Her Rival for the Sum of $5000.

In one of the most remarkable defenses ever interposed in a plea for alimony, George C. D'Arcy, a lawyer, yesterday produced in court a document signed by his wife Johanna in which she acknowledged having received $5000 as the price of her freedom.

"She accepted this money," said counsel for D'Arcy, "as compensation for his living with the co-respondent. She cannot ask alimony from this court."

Mrs. D'Arcy asked Justice Ford for an absolute divorce, for $50 counsel fees and $25 a week alimony. She declared she had been married to D'Arcy in 1885, and that they had lived happily together for six years.

About that time D'Arcy met Mamie Lamb, a burlesque actress. Although he had an income of $4000 from his law practice, he neglected both his business and his wife in his infatuation. Shortly afterward he came into a fortune of $20,000, and, according to his wife, he and once deserted her and went to Chicago with Miss Lamb.

Mrs. D'Arcy states that while her husband supported her for a time she was left without any money, and that she is penniless and without proper means of support. She lives at 751 Tinton avenue, the Bronx, and asks that the court award sufficient money to provide for needs.

KANSAS HAS 'GOOD, HONEST' MEN FOR WIDOWS TO WED

TOPEKA, Sept. 18.—There ought to be no trouble for a Kansas widow to secure a husband these days, since a company has been established here of the State capital, the purpose of which is to furnish husbands to those widowed ones who are desirous of taking another chance in the matrimonial field. The widow doesn't have to be young. It is not necessary that she be extremely fair to look upon. Her bank account must not necessarily be large, although that would help. All that is required is that she express a desire to marry again and indicate whether or not she would consider an offer of marriage from a "respectable, good, honest man."

This agency is sending out letters to practically all the widows in the State. The circular letter head speaks of the association as "marriage brokers." In one corner is a picture of two clasped hands, beneath which is printed: "United we stand, divided we fall." Here is a copy of the letter:

"Dear Madam.—You having been a married woman, would you accept another offer in marriage? We think we can find you a respectable, good, honest man if you wish to get married again, as we have quite a number of very eligible men on our lists that we can furnish you with such a person as you want. If you wish to embark in matrimony again."

It will be noticed that the circular refrains from saying anything about the "age of matrimony," although it cuts pretty close by asking the fair one if she wishes to again "embark."

Good-Bye to Bridge Whist

Good-bye to bridge whist. It's a fast enough game for Continental society, but Newport this week decided that it had had enough of the game and turned its attention, so dispatches say, to roulette. You can lose more money in a given time by the wheel route than you can the other way.

All the women at the pier are wild about it, and some of them may be seen daily playing the fascinating game. The Mills twins, Mrs. Arthur Scott Burder and Mrs. Glen Collins are devotees. Mrs. O'Donnell Miller is another who loves it. One of this group, insisting that her age was twenty-three, played that number at an evening recently, and won a large sum. She is more than twenty-three, but that didn't hurt her luck.

M'KINLEY'S ACTRESS NIECE INHERITS A $130,000 ESTATE LEFT BY EX-PRESIDENT

A few years ago the theatergoing public was treated to the unique novelty of seeing a niece of the President of the United States on the vaudeville stage.

Maebel McKinley Baer, the talented daughter of the late President's brother, Almon, has recently taken heir to $130,000 from the estate of the late President's McKinley. In the face of grim necessity, she showed herself equal to the task of not only pleasing the public and making a snug little fortune for herself, but of winning the number of popular songs which are yet heard wherever popular music is enjoyed.

PLEADED MCKINLEY.

President McKinley was particularly fond of his talented niece and not only

Love's Young Dream Is All Right Sometimes

(BY AN ENGLISH LADY.)

"Nothing in life is half as sweet as love's young dream." Very true, entirely true—but what is the good of a sweet dream followed by a bitter awakening, as is often the case when Cupid alone manages the business?

Také, for instance, the barrister who feels so enraptured by the blue eyes and left-cheek dimple of a debt-ridden colonel's daughter that, relying on briefs that may come and on a young uncle who may not have an heir, he begs Clarice Shott to become Mrs. Wigg. She does so—(they are full of happiness)—the briefs don't come—(they are anxious—the blue eyes grow dull—(tears are responsible for this)—the young uncle is blessed with an heir just about the same time as Baby Wigg arrives—(how is Baby Wigg to go to Eton and Oxford later on when funds are low and briefs absent?)—the dimple disappears—(cheeks thinned but worry can't sport dimples)—the rapture is over, and the marriage is more or less of a failure.

But if Alistaire Wigg had married that jolly little daughter of John Taype (of Messrs. Taype, Taype & Dockett, solicitors) what a different matter it might have been. Papa-in-law would have put briefs in his son-in-law's way, and the jolly little daughter would have remained jolly because she'd know quite well that with "Daddy's" influence and Alistaire's cleverness small Alistaire John Norman Taype Wigg would be able to enjoy a first-rate start in life.

CALLS ON HELEN GOULD'S PURSE AMOUNT TO SUM OF $100,000,000 YEARLY

CURIOUS REQUESTS FROM MANY SOURCES

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Miss Helen Gould was recently requested to subscribe to the permanent installation in New York of Franz Kallert's orchestra. After encouraging Kallert she gave him an itemized list of a week's requests that she had received. The positions, if satisfied, would require $100,000,000 annually or about $2,000,000 a week; they range from a modest plea for some false teeth at $15 a set to an imperious demand for $1,000,000 to start a Cuban colony.

In the week referred to, Miss Gould received 331 requests for money outright; of these, 140 left the amount to her good will and discretion. They weren't particular. More than ninety wanted cash loans. Sixteen didn't specify any particular amount; they just wanted to borrow. Miss Gould was asked in that week for $500 to help form an anti-saloon league in Idaho. She received forty-three requests for aid for churches, twenty-seven for educational institutions and twenty-six for libraries. More than thirty were for help for charitable institutions.

CURIOUS OFFERS.

Eleven persons wanted pianos and twelve wanted Miss Gould to buy their inventions. One person wrote a long letter offering to give her the chance to buy a ring for $1200 which was worth four times that much. If a cent. A girl wanted to sell her a brooch for $500, and still another said she had a lovely Soveray watch which Miss Gould "bought" it was worth $500.

In the long list there was only one request for a musical instrument. Somebody wanted an organ, but another person wanted money with which to print 2000 hymnals. Following are some of the other wants: Bibles, bicycles, a farm and three cows, one invalid's chair, enough air pillows to supply a regiment of soldiers, one set of teeth, five sewing machines and fifteen railway tickets.

Arizona Rancher Marries In Real Romantic Style

BLOOMINGTON, Ill.—Louis L. Kramer came all the way from Yuma, Arizona, to marry a girl he had never seen. The bride was Miss Flora Weis, a pretty young woman of Tazewell county.

The groom wrote to his aunt here, Mrs. Patterson, to put him in communication with a girl who would make him a good wife, as he was lonely on his ranch in Arizona. Mrs. Patterson recommended

Miss Weis, a neighbor's daughter, and correspondence was begun.

The girl was taken with the romance of the affair and when photographs were exchanged and proved satisfactory, a proposal quickly followed. An acceptance was written and then Kramer came East to claim his bride. The marriage was celebrated the day after his arrival and the couple departed immediately afterward for Yuma.

CALIFORNIA WOMAN WAS BRIDE THIRTEEN TIMES

Had Russian Count for Her First Husband

Few women in any part of the civilized world could probably be found to dispute the record of Mrs. Coto, who recently lived at Santa Barbara, Cal. She claims to have had more husbands than any woman alive.

Mrs. Coto has had thirteen husbands, and as she married them between the ages of 17 and 20, she changed them off an average with each season and had one left over with which to start the next. Her first venture was a decidedly advantageous one from the worldly point of view, for her husband was a Russian Count, who gave her as well as a title. In a few weeks she was disillusioned, so she divorced him to marry another titled man, only to discard him in turn. In rapid succession she married a man vaguely described as a business man, a stockbroker from Texas, a gentleman with the unenviable reputation of being one of the heaviest gamblers in his own particular town, a ranchman, a Jew, a commercial traveler, a barber and representatives of other different callings.

POOREST OF ALL.

The fact that wealth and comfort do not always conduce to happiness is emphasized in the case of the lady's last husband, for he was the poorest of them all, yet she has admitted that she has been happier with him than with any of the others. Most of her ex-husbands are alive, in fact, only one of them has died.

To have been wooed and won eight times in succession surely entitles a woman to a high place among people who are called the much-married people. This lady is Mrs. Watanabe-Saunders-Fowler-Lindley-Godfrey-Gay-Crowther-Lepage. She has a plethora of hyphens, she might describe herself, using in turn the name of each of the husbands whose society she has enjoyed to furnish her with her present name instead of that of Mary Johnson, with which she was born.

Providing Cupid Does Not Take Matters in His Own Hands . . .

riages which have been based to a certain extent on business footings recur to my mind.

There is a young composer who has chosen for his bride a young singer, and the mutual advantages of this arrangement are being evidenced every day when he writes songs which exactly suit her style, and she gives the same songs prominence by singing them. There is a doctor who has married the pretty sister of an analyst (any amount of mutual benefit accrues from this connection); a writer who has taken for his bride a publisher's daughter; a girl artist who has been led to the altar by the son of a famous firm of engravers—and other instances too numerous to mention, including the most recent alliance between the son and daughter of two great organists.

"How sordid! How unromantic! How hideously practical!" will be the cry of young people who are so full of living's joy that the future seems merely a flat remote possibility to be grappled with later on—much, much later on! But those young people must remember that the present merges into the future before puffed sleeves and baggy trousers can come into fashion again, and the future of marriage, without some substantial basis, is a poor lookout.

OCCUPY ADJOINING ROOMS BUT LOSE EACH OTHER They Keep Up Vigorous Hunt for Hours

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 18.—After searching for each other for twenty-four hours, during which time both occupied adjoining rooms at the Kupper hotel, visited the same park and shopped in the same stores, Mrs. L. Clingstone of Topeka, Kansas, and her sister, Mrs. A. Williams of Los Angeles, Cal., met on a train for Topeka yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Clingstone and Mrs. Williams were to meet at the Union depot Friday afternoon, but missed each other there. Both went to the Kupper hotel and were given adjoining rooms. Both began calling up different hotels to locate the other. After two hours of telephoning and inquiring both gave up the search for the night.

Mrs. Clingstone decided to spend the evening at Electric park and so did

Mrs. Williams. They left the hotel for the park not more than five minutes apart and each saw the lights there and returned ignorant of the other's presence there. The telephoning to the hotels to locate each other was repeated yesterday morning and was not successful. Mrs. Clingstone then decided to do some shopping and so did Mrs. Williams. They visited the same stores and returned to the hotel yesterday afternoon a few minutes apart.

Mrs. Clingstone decided to return to her home in Topeka and about the same time Mrs. Williams decided she would go to Topeka. They went to the Union depot where both purchased tickets and boarded the same train. Then there was a happy meeting and explanations.

Women Can Endure More Than Men

Social Season Strain
Seems Not to Bother
In Spite of Effort

(BY LADY VIOLET NEVILLE.)

LONDON, Sept. 14.—It has been asserted that women are naturally stronger than men, and can bear pain better. Whether this is actually the case I know not, but one sees on every side girls doing the most imprudent and reckless things, apparently with immunity. The tremendous strain of the London season presses less heavily on the girls than on the men. They seem able to sit up all night in a close and unwholesome atmosphere, to eat rich dinners and late suppers, and rush about all day long with "pneumonia" blouses in a biting east wind and play tennis at tournament in pouring rain, and in the thinnest of linen garments; they stand about after violent exercise without a thought of a chill, whereas the man carefully swaddles his neck in a thick scarf and puts on a coat when he has finished running about; women wear open-work stockings and dainty shoes in wet weather, and apparently court danger under every form, and yet—they survive.

I am forced, therefore, to admit that they must be stronger than men, or at any rate, possess greater recuperative powers. Of one lady whom I knew, her friends were apt to say she was either ill in bed or at a ball. Against that, we must note the prevalence of rest-cures and the repeated instances of nervous breakdown. No young girl of eighteen should require a rest-cure if she leads a normal life, and nervous breakdown should be reserved for the cabinet minister and the music-hall artist.

So Says Cook To the King

Mrs. Rosa Lewis, favorite chef of King Edward, has written on the subject of how to cook for kings, and incidentally gives some good advice that other cooks, who only cater to the appetites of plain men of the John and William order, may do well to follow. You can't work in kid gloves she says; a statement some of us might be willing to contest, and she advises the new cook not to aspire to make original dishes until she has mastered the elements of her profession. She says sensible cooking is more demanded than ever and there is more intelligence on the subject.

THE GREAT CHANGE.

Before she went to boardin' school she uster romp an' play,
She druv the cows from the field an' helped take in the hay,
But she don't do that any more, because of this, you see—
She went away as Mary Jane an' came back Jeanne Marie.

She uster wear made-over clothes, was always with a smile,
But now her dresses every one must be the latest style.
She don't ride bareback any more, nor climb the apple tree—
She went away as Mary Jane, but come back Jeanne Marie.

Her hair is all in crinkles now—she calls 'em Marshal waves;
She's up in all the etiquette, real stylish she behaves.
Her ma and me are mighty proud o' all she's learned—but, gee!
We sometimes wish for Mary Jane instid of Jeanne Marie!

—Elsie Duncan Yale.

May One Flirt With His Wife?

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—A peculiar case growing out of an alleged street flirtation confronts Municipal Judge Cleland.

John Kennovitz asserts that Tilly Tolan is his wife and for that cause he had a perfect right to approach her on the street. Tilly is equally certain that John is not her husband and for that reason had him arrested when he spoke to her. John said they were married in Detroit and that the woman deserted him later.

JORDAN AND MOSES TO SPEAK BEFORE CLUB

BERKELEY, Sept. 18.—Two eminent speakers will address the next meeting of the Berkeley Unitarian Club which will be held in the new Masonic Temple next Saturday evening. David Starr Jordan, president of Stanford University, will speak on the subject, "Economic Problems in Australasia," and Professor Bernard Moses will address the club on the "Economic Situation in South America."

The gatherings of the Berkeley Unitarian Club are fast becoming famous for the interest displayed in civic problems, and the meeting Saturday promises to rival in this regard any of those held in the past.

Following the meeting a dinner will be served in the banquet room of the new Masonic Temple, after which the subjects introduced by the speakers will be further discussed and a number of toasts will be given. Following are the officers of the club: President, W. H. Fayson; vice president, M. V. Haskell; secretary, Henry Senger; treasurer, W. B. Clark.

PRESENT KNIGHTS WITH COMMANDRY JEWELS

BERKELEY, Sept. 18.—Four candidates were initiated into the mysteries of the Order of the Red Cross at the regular meeting of Berkeley Commandry No. 12, Knights Templar, Monday evening in Masonic Temple. Right Eminent Charles L. Field, grand commander of the State of California, Eminent Sir Rodolph W. Meek, inspector for this district, and Frank W. Sumner, past grand commander, were present and all united in their praise of the work carried out by Berkeley Commandry.

After the initiation an elaborate banquet was served in the banquet room which was followed by speeches. Each of the visiting lodges was presented with a jewel of Berkeley Commandry which is beautiful and distinctive, bearing the coat of arms of Berkeley, for whom this city was named.

VICIOUSNESS OF THE DOG WAS NOT PROVED

BERKELEY, Sept. 18.—Police Judge Edgar yesterday dismissed the case against John Herb, who was charged with keeping a vicious dog.

Herb was arrested last May on complaint of Mrs. Emma Volant, 1622 Grant street, whose 5-year-old daughter, Bessie, who had been bitten by Herb's dog, but there was nothing in the evidence to show that the animal was vicious.

DEATH OF MRS. PHILLIPS.

RICHMOND, Sept. 18.—Mrs. William Phillips, whose home is on the east side, died Saturday noon from consumption, aged 32 years. She leaves a husband and two children to mourn her loss.

BREAKS ARM IN FALL WHILE OUT FISHING

BERKELEY, Sept. 18.—Doctor Garlick, an eminent specialist of Cincinnati, is at the Roosevelt Hospital with a badly fractured arm. He is being attended by Dr. Frank E. Woolsey.

Dr. Garlick is making a tour of the West, accompanied by his wife and children. He is a prominent clubman of Cincinnati and has a large circle of friends both in the East and West.

The accident which resulted in the doctor's injury was a somewhat curious one. About a week ago he went to Lake Tahoe with a friend to enjoy a few days' fishing. While fishing from the bank of the lake his fishing pole caught in the branches of a tree overhead, causing him to fall headlong over a pile of boulders, breaking his arm.

MOURNING CEREMONY OF SAN DIEGO INDIANS

BERKELEY, Sept. 18.—The anthropological department of the University has sent T. T. Watterman, '07, to San Diego county to attend the mourning ceremony for the dead Indians, soon to be held there. It is called the eagle dance and special importance is attached to it, because it is the last dance of the songs and other parts of the ceremony as possible.

The dance lasts all night and consists in dancing and singing chants around an eagle, which is gradually squeezed to death. The eagle is supposed to symbolize the dead chief.

The anthropological department, under the direction of Professor Kroeber, has been collecting records of war songs and dances, and it now has a valuable collection of over a thousand records in San Francisco and on the University campus.

WANT CITY PARKS.

BERKELEY, Sept. 18.—Many prominent citizens of Berkeley met at the Hillside Club Monday evening and to start the movement for the city to acquire playgrounds and parks. Among the speakers were Oscar Cushing, president of the State Board of Charities; Chief of Police August Vollmer; Dr. Dransfield of the State University; Charles Keeler, H. A. $1,000,000 FOR A NEW HOTEL

Berkeleyans to Erect Structure in Center of City on Shattuck Estate.

BERKELEY, Sept. 18.—Berkeley is soon to have a $1,000,000 hotel. Within the next few days articles of incorporation will be filed for the organization of a company, composed of prominent Berkeley capitalists, who will at once draw up plans for the structure.

The hotel site will occupy the old Shattuck estate on Shattuck avenue and Allston way, which is one of the most valuable properties in this city. The land alone is valued at half a million dollars, while the estimated cost of the proposed building is in the neighborhood of $2,000,000.

Among those who are interested in the project and will be members of the company of directors, are John W. Hayes, W. E. Woolsey, B. F. Brooks, A. W. Naylor, and Judge William H. West.

West Oakland Club Has Slashing Card

The management of the West Oakland Club has everything arranged to handle a large crowd at the boxing show that is to take place in the club rooms tomorrow evening. Jack Brown and Frankie Edwards have both worked hard for this bout and are ready to put up a fierce contest. Brown has been training for the past ten days at the San Francisco Club across the bay and is so well thought of over there that he is sure to bring a large contingent of followers over with him. The Oakland sports think so much of Edwards that they are sure to back him up with their cheers.

If Frankie Murphy should be successful in winning from Young Casey, he will be matched to meet the winner of the Harry Dell, Eddie Lennon and Harry DeLeon training harder for his fight with Lennon than he has for his other fights, and has had the coaching of Fred Landers to help him along.

The preliminaries for the show are better than usual and ought to keep the crowd in good humor until the main event. Sailor Johnson who has been out of the game for about three months is going to try a conclusion with Jack Cox of Alameda. Frankie Flynn who gave George Leahy his hardest fight will meet Charles E. Bennett of North Beach, and last but not least comes the two chocolate-colored gentlemen—Young Turner and Lee Johnson.

Reserved seats were placed on sale yesterday afternoon and from the way they have been selling it is probable there will be a big crowd in attendance.

THE GENERAL INCREASE IN RATES.

Conditions seem to justify them—The Cost of Material Has Advanced and Wages in All Departments Increased.

No beginning of an active advertising season has brought with it so many increases in advertising rates. These increases are not confined to any set class of papers but uniformly prevail among the daily newspapers, weeklies, magazines, periodicals and trade papers.

A condition of affairs like this reflects an adjustment of conditions not unlike that which existed for some time in other branches of industries. Only that the pressure of increasing value for material and wages have been fought off by publishers as long as they possibly could, but they are compelled to succumb to the necessitous circumstances of making both ends meet by a normal increase in charge for their advertising space.

All the important items of expense in getting out a paper nowadays are from 25 to 50 per cent more than they were a year or two ago. Print paper has steadily gone up in price. Typesetting, engraving, have been burdened with considerable advances.

Top of this comes the insistent demand from skilled labor employed in the publishing business, by no means an unimportant item on account of the higher cost of living. This claim no fair-minded publisher can controvert, for their own wives undoubtedly have often called their attention to how much more grocers and butchers and merchants generally are now asking for their goods.

But the increase in wages for publishers has not stopped here. They are just as great with a similar justification as pleaded by the skilled help in the mechanical department, among the editorial assistants and those in the business department.

This greater cost of production it has attempted to provide for by economies in other directions, and were it not for these economies the advertising rates, for these economies, would have been increased more than a year ago. They have gone up now for no other reason than compulsion to make both ends meet.

HORSE FALLS ON FAMILY

Tornado Lands Animal on Refuge Seekers, Killing Two Children.

ST. PAUL.—A tornado which passed over western Wisconsin a few days ago blew a horse out of the wreckage of a stable through the air until it fell on the family of Joseph Buckner, a Jackson county farmer, whose members had crouched for safety in an uncovered cellar. Mr. and Mrs. Buckner were injured and their two children killed. Twenty-one persons are reported to have been killed in the tornado, which swept a path one hundred miles long and from a mile to a few rods in width.

PREFERS PISTOL SHOT TO SCHOOL

Girl Tries Suicide Rather Than Obey Mother and Return to Her Classes.

ELIZABETH, Pa.—Emma Graham, 18 years old, daughter of Burgess J. H. Graham, tried to kill herself recently because she did not want to go to school. She is at the Mercy Hospital, Pittsburgh, and probably will die from a bullet wound in her side. The girl was washing dishes when her mother asked, "Emma, are you going to get ready for school?" The girl stamped her foot and replied, "No, I'm not going to school any more." Mrs. Graham commanded the girl to stop washing dishes and go to school. The girl dashed upstairs, and in about

STORK ADDS 7 TO SHIP'S LIST

Kroonland Has Record for Births on One Trip—Six Babies Born in Steerage.

NEW YORK.—The stork took passage on the Red Star steamship Kroonland, which arrived here from Antwerp. Seven babies were the result of his industry. A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Hector Houssere of Paris. The stork paid its visit to them on the first day. The remaining six babies were left by the stork in the steerage. Dr. T. E. Schaepkens, the ship surgeon, failed to record the names of the lucky parents. Two minutes her mother heard a shot. She found her daughter severely wounded. Emma Graham was considered the brightest pupil in the Elizabeth High School last year.

CAT GUARDS DEAD MISTRESS

Woman Lies All Night With Broken Neck While Feline Mourns Piteously.

NEW YORK.—Miss Margaret Cahill of No. 202 East Forty-fourth street, returned home late on Saturday night and tried to enter her apartments by the fire escape and the rear window. The young woman slipped and fell five stories, breaking her neck. Miss Cahill's pet cat went to the rear window of the fire-escape and scratched on the windows. When the windows were opened the intelligent animal did not jump in as usual, but remained outside meowing piteously. No one understood and the windows were closed one after another. The cat stayed out all night

BUSY BANKER CARRIES HOD

Wealthy Citizens of Kansas Town Turn Laborers to Fill Shortage.

SABETHA, Kan.—It is so difficult to secure men to work here that Leroy Hesselstine, a banker who is building a storeroom at Sabetha, has himself carried brick for the masons. O. C. Dirmock, who is raising a bank building in this city, has carried brick and mortar for several days. C. P. Chaffee, a wealthy retired farmer, more than seventy-five years old, has worked each day on the Dirmock building in place of a workman who is sick. Sabetha is a small town in Kansas and was lying near the body when it was found in the morning.

FINDS INFANT ON DOORSTEP

Note Says "Keep My Baby and You Will be Rewarded."

ALTOONA, Pa.—"Kindly keep baby and take good care of him until I call for him; you shall be well rewarded and shall receive a mother's everlasting gratitude." A slip of paper bearing these words was pinned to the frock of a tiny baby boy that was found by James Ault near Tyrone, yesterday morning, on his front porch. The baby was faintly cold and was snugly wrapped in a small quilt and placed in a covered basket. The members of the Ault family are so taken with the child that they say they would take care of it for its own sake, even if there were no promise of a reward.

CUBA MUST PAY FOR ITS GOOD BARGAIN

The American occupation of Cuba is costing a pretty penny, but if the revolutionists of last August had entailed upon their country no greater evil than this Cuba might easily forgive them, for she is receiving full value for the money expended on the army of pacification, which is rendering valuable service in cleaning up her cities, building her roads, reorganizing all her departments, reeducating her moribund school system, training her armed forces, and, most important of all, remodeling and harmonizing her laws. We are told that up to the close of the fiscal year these works have cost, over and above the ordinary expenses of the army, a little over two and one-half millions, which we presume Cuba eventually will have to pay, but the benefits secured are cheap at the price, and if Cuba knows a bargain when she sees it, she will retain the army of pacification in her service at the same rate for as long a time as possible.—Havana Telegraph.
